

*I dreamed of a wedding of elaborate elegance, a room filled with flowers and friends.
I asked him what kind of wedding he wished for; he said one that would make me his wife.*

Boasting breath-taking ocean views, an ambience of pure sophistication and its own private cocktail bar, our reception facility, The Function, will make your wedding a day to be remembered for time immemorial.

You will be forever inspired by watching from its balcony a trademark Glenelg ocean sunset, spanning every imaginable colour and hue, haloed in a fresh mist of sea-spray.

Combine the romanticism of our Ferris wheel or the nostalgia of our century-old carousel with the sheer beauty of being by the beach to create a totally unique and moving wedding experience.

Bathed in natural light, able to cater for 200, The Function is a start-of-the-art multimedia facility just perfect for hosting your wedding reception. It has an infinite number of layout possibilities and is presided over by an executive chef who will work with you to create a menu of absolute culinary perfection.
